CATALOGUE.

The following collection of CONFEDERATE PAPER MONEY consists of 1401 notes, among which I do not believe a single duplicate can be found. I have critically gone over the several issues, series, serial letters, engravers and lithographers, and their various locations, as well as peculiarities of scrolls, shapes and styles of letters, shadings of buildings, omission of words and letters, etc., and compared them with the arrangements by Haseltine, Thian, and the late Dr. Massamore. The latter must be credited with the greatest elaboration of detail. To realize the extent of the undertaking in drawing together so large a number, and the patience necessary to succeed so well, one must not only be a collector of this series, but must possess the love of collecting. This aggregation contains, moreover, a few varieties I do not recognize in the tables of any of the compilers I have named, while a number of the series are complete.

Explanation of Abbreviations.—C.C., cancelled, but note complete; C.O., cancelled, piece out of note.
